

WOMAN WHO TOILED IN SHOP NOW ASKS FOR A DIVORCE

Mrs. Nannie Carter Says Husband, for Whom She Worked, Wants to "Cast Her Aside."

Mrs. Nannie Florence Carter of 4742 Northland avenue filed suit for divorce yesterday against William Columbus Carter, an inventor, of the Impulse Tank Co., 2820 North Spring avenue, alleging that in the early years of her married life she worked in his shop and practiced strict economy and now that he has become successful he is trying to "cast her aside." They were married in 1905, and she alleged he left her a year ago, about the time that he took an automobile trip, and was back in the city for three weeks before she knew it.

Carter invented a carburetor, which has been manufactured in St. Louis, an automobile gasoline tank and accessories. His wife alleges that he has lavished money on other women, but has been penurious with her.

"In the first years of their married life," the petition sets out, "he was a poor inventor and she worked hard to help build up his business. She worked in the shop, operating a drill press, doing janitor work, delivering parcels, acting as collector and serving in various other menial capacities. She practiced strict domestic economy and now that he is a financial success he is trying to cast her aside and deprive her of her just share of their joint labor and savings."

Mrs. Carter declares her husband has a known income of $200 a month and has much property. She asks for custody of their 8-year-old son, William, and alimony.

MILLER PROMISES AID OF POLICE IN PAROLE INQUIRIES

President of Police Board Writes Judge Grimm That Courts Will Receive Services of Department.

GIVES HIS VIEWS ON INVESTIGATIONS

Believes Chief Should Be Consulted and Recommendations Asked Before Bench Takes Other Action

In reply to the letter of Circuit Judge J. Hugo Grimm, protesting against the discontinuance of the police parole bureau, President Miller of the Police Board has assured Judge Grimm, in a letter sent to him yesterday afternoon, that the criminal courts are not to be deprived of the services of the Police Department in the investigation of applications for parole.

"However," President Miller stated in his letter, "in view of the manner in which the present parole office was being conducted, we felt that it was necessary to change the system; and, while we cannot and will not attempt to dictate to the judges as to whom they should parole and upon what terms they shall grant paroles, nevertheless, it is only right and fair that the Police Department should be consulted when a parole is applied for, and the recommendations of the Police Department should be considered very seriously by the judges in granting paroles."

Influences Are Mentioned.

The letter proceeded:

"According to reliable information, which I have investigated and found to be true, most of the paroles are granted to men who happen to have friends possessing some political, business, social or religious influence, and a great many paroles are granted to young men who have had every advantage—who have been well educated, who have been brought up by parents of good standing, and who in my opinion deserve more punishment for committing crimes, than the poor unfortunates who had no advantages, and who were not taught the difference between right and wrong."

"If you will investigate the paroles that have been granted during the last four or five years, you will find out that what I am saying is true, and it seems unfair to me that paroles should be granted to the educated and not to the uneducated. I believe that the individual who is taught the difference between right and wrong should be more severely punished than the individual who is brought up in surroundings which do not enable him to understand the difference between right and wrong."

"I realize that the judges are often imposed upon and sometimes grant paroles which should not be granted, and the Police Board is willing to assist the judges in paroling those who deserve paroles, and keeping in jail those who should be kept in jail."

"I have discussed this matter with a committee of the Board of Religious Organizations, and they have volunteered their assistance to the Police Department in investigating applicants for parole. You may rest assured that records in the Police Department will be available to the judges, in order that you may determine whether or not the applicant should be granted a parole."

Suggests a Consultation.

"My suggestion is that the judges of the criminal courts advise the Chief of Police whenever an application is made for a parole, and we will have an investigator made of the applicant, and not only furnish you with all the information that you have heretofore received, but will furnish you with recommendations of those who are in a position to know whether or not the applicant would be a menace to society if turned loose. Furthermore, when a parole is granted, the Police Department will do its very best to see that the paroled offender is advised whenever he is found associating with the wrong kind of people, and we will do our best to keep every paroled offender on the straight and narrow path."

"We cannot do this now, because the Police Department does not know who has been paroled. The arrangements that I have suggested are fair, just and reasonable, and the judges of the criminal court are especially requested to avail themselves of our services."

"In conclusion, I again ask you to disabuse your mind of the thought that we are not inclined to co-operate with the judges."

"I also wish to protest against the subterfuge that has been used in order to grant paroles, that is, by allowing a man charged with an offense such as arson, murder or robbery, to plead guilty to a lesser offense, in order that the judge may parole him."

Evasion of Statutes.

"As you know, the statutes of the State of Missouri do not permit judges to parole persons convicted of murder, arson, or robbery. Regardless of this provision, there have been numerous cases wherein persons charged with robbery (and whose conviction was certain) have been permitted to plead guilty to grand larceny, or a lesser offense, in order that they may be paroled and the provisions of the statute thereby defeated.

"Further commenting on this last subject, it seems rather inconsistent for the Police Department to use every effort to put offenders in jail for crimes committed, and then turn around and try to get them out."

Style Show Closes Tonight.

The seventh and last presentation of the Fashion Pageant at the Municipal Theater in Forest Park will take place tonight. There was a large attendance last night despite threatening weather.

ROBBED OF AUTO AND CASH IN HIS GARAGE

Man Held Up While Putting Machine Away Loses Diamond Pin and Watch.

Two men held up William J. Moore of 3829 Washington boulevard, as he was putting his automobile away in a garage near his home at 8 o'clock last night. They took his purse, containing $50, a diamond stickpin valued by him at $25, and his watch, valued at $25. They then demanded the key to the automobile and they drove the car out and locked Moore in the garage. He got out through a window and notified the police. The car was found soon afterward in front of a house in the 2800 block on Cook avenue, undamaged.

Hobbers Get $265 and Forget to Search Victim's Companion.

Two men who held up John J. Duggan of 2050 Rutger street and Charles P. Stanley of 1211 Ohio avenue, on Ohio avenue near Park avenue at 1 a. m. today, were so elated at finding a $250 "roll" in Duggan's pocket that they hurried away, without taking anything from Stanley. They took Duggan's watch and chain, which he valued at more than $100.

Joseph Klein, living at the Princess Hotel, was held up at 11:30 p. m. at Thirteenth street and Franklin avenue, by two men who got out of a Ford car, leaving a third man in the car. They beat him with a revolver when he hesitated in giving them his money, which amounted to $18.40, and his watch.

Cleve Davidson of 6138 Hartner avenue told the police that he thought he recognized the two men who held him up near his home at 11:20 p. m. The men did not display any weapon. They took $10 and his watch. The police arrested four men on suspicion.

Emil Reidel, who took a room at 1600 Olive street yesterday, was standing in front of the house at 9 p. m. when two men "strong-armed" him and took $78.

A pickpocket, who robbed William R. Woods of Meridian, Miss., near Union Station yesterday, took the cash, $140, from his purse, and dropped the purse and the other contents, railroad passes and checks for $2065, into a mailbox at Sixteenth and Locust streets. They were found by a mail collector.

Burglars who failed to open a safe, in the office of the William J. Schreiber Manufacturing Co., 1514 North Eighteenth street, carried away two electric fans. In exchange they left a hammer, saw and chisel, with which they had battered the safe.

65 PER CENT INCREASE IN DRUNKENNESS IN ENGLAND

Growth in 1920 Attributed to Reaction After Sobriety of War Period.

Correspondence of the Associated Press.

LONDON, July 30.—Drunkenness increased by more than 65 per cent in England last year, according to official licensing statistics. The reaction after the war period of sobriety was shown by 95,762 convictions, compared with 57,943 in 1919. There were only 29,075 convictions in 1918.

The convictions of women were 36 per cent more than in 1919, and more than double the total of 1918. The Daily Express, while admitting the figures are startling, attributes the increase in convictions to the continuance of early closing regulations enforced during the war and suggests that "people who are denied reasonable facilities for obtaining liquor, have taken in their resentment more than was good for them when they could get it."

The paper also holds that the closing of properly conducted saloons has led to the opening of many bogus clubs and illicit drinking dens.

Official health returns for 1920 just issued indicate, on the other hand, that the nation as a whole is distinctly healthier. Tuberculosis figures are the lowest recorded since compulsory notification came into force. The number of deaths from consumption was 32,469.

The infant mortality rate, 50 per 1000, is also the lowest recorded, while the birth rate rose from 18.5 in the previous year to 25.4, and the death rate 12.4, shows a decline 4. most ages.

Prohibition Director in Illinois to Check Up On "Hardest Men to Combat."

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Aug. 17.—Relentless warfare was declared yesterday by John Kjelander, prohibition director, upon physicians who issue prescriptions in violation of the prohibition law. He declared he would drive doctors who violate the law from the practice of their profession.

"Next to the bootlegger, the doctor who prescribes just to earn a fee, knowing that the man asking for the prescription is not ill, is the hardest man to combat," Kjelander said.

"Most doctors are honest, but there is a certain percentage writing prescriptions illegally. I intend to check up on all doctors immediately. If I have to call in every physician in the State who has filled emergency prescriptions."

STEPS TAKEN FOR VALLEY "RIVER BLOC" IN CONGRESS

Will Be Composed of Representatives of States Interested in Development of Inland Waterways.

START MADE AT DINNER IN CAPITAL

James E. Smith of St. Louis Leads in Formation of Organization to Push Water Transportation.

By the Washington Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—Steps were taken today toward the formation of a permanent bi-partisan "river bloc" in Congress. It will be similar in its workings to the "agricultural bloc," which has been markedly successful in compelling action on measures of interest to the farmers.

The "river bloc," composed of representatives of the Valley states interested in development of the inland waterways, will have two main objects, to put an end to railroad rate discrimination against the Central West and bring about greater use of the navigable rivers of the country.

The movement was started last night at a dinner given by James E. Smith of St. Louis, vice president of the Mississippi Valley Association, a charge of the waterways division, to about 50 Congressmen from 12 states of the Mississippi Valley.

After the need for concerted action in behalf of the waterways had been set forth in speeches by several Congressmen, Representative Graham of Illinois moved that a temporary "river bloc" be formed of members of both parties from the Valley states and that Representative Cleveland of St. Louis be made temporary chairman and instructed to effect a permanent organization.

The motion was unanimously carried. Newton today set about perfecting the organization. He said that numerous members of Congress in addition to those at the dinner last night would be drawn into it.

Adequate Allotment Wanted. Newton said that one of his first steps would be to call the members together to discuss means of getting an adequate allotment for the waterways included in the next annual budget. Officials in charge of the budget, he said, apparently were not yet aware of the importance of the movement to develop the rivers.

Practically all the members present last night made speeches pointing out the desirability of working in concert to secure a "fair deal" for the valley. All the addresses were in the same key. There was general complaint against present railroad rates as well as agreement that far greater use should be made of the water highways.

Through unjust rates on the railroads, it was held the interior of the country is being made to compensate the roads for losses incurred in carrying freight from the eastern to the western seaboard.

Representative Newton, who made the principal talk, cited as an instance of this discrimination the fact that 100 pounds of paint or hardware may be carried from Boston to Seattle for $1, whereas, if the shipment is stopped at some point in the Mississippi Valley the rate is $1.68. One hundred pounds of apples, he said, may be carried from Boston to Seattle for 75 cents, while the rate to St. Louis is $1.62.

Action of the Railroads. It was declared, moreover, that the railroads are being permitted to thwart the development of the merchant marine by their "cut-throat" transcontinental freight rates.

Attention was called to the fact that the Government has spent $450,000,000 on the Panama Canal, millions of dollars on inland waterways, $1,800,000,000 on the Shipping Board, to which an appropriation of $48,000,000 was added last week, all with a view to stimulating water transportation.

In other words, practically $5,000,000,000, it was estimated, has been spent on a merchant marine and inland waterways to develop one important arm of transportation at the same time that the other arm has been permitted to cripple it and to retard the growth of the Mississippi Valley by hauling freight across the country at one-half the cost of carriage.

One of two things, it was agreed at the meeting, should be done. If the Government desires nothing but rail transportation in the United States, then expenditures on the merchant marine and waterways should cease. If the waterways are to be used, the Interstate Commerce Commission should be barred from permitting "cut-throat" railroad rates to water points.

Congress, it was declared, has appropriated $1,600,000,000 to make up deficits to the railroads, and much of the loss has been incurred on freight carried between seaboard points. "We need more business in Government," Representative Newton summed up. "If the people of the Mississippi Valley ever come to understand what is being done to them through unfair rail rates they will rise up and demand a change."

Showing of Barge Line. The party expressed gratification at the showing of the Mississippi Barge Line during the last six months, when $173,000 was earned over operating expenses when the railroads were losing money on account of lack of tonnage.

James E. Smith was enthusiastic today over the results of the meeting and the prospect of effective action by the river bloc.

"We have now," he said "something we have never had before in Congress—an organization with the definite aim of looking out for the waterways. There was no discordant note whatever at the meeting. Everyone there pledged his support. For the first time in my experience of holding waterway meetings, every man who was invited and who was in the city attended."

Smith promised the bloc the backing of the Mississippi Valley Association and assured the members that their efforts would be seconded by manufacturers' associations and other commercial bodies among their constituents.

"We will have in the organization," said Newton, "a lot of good strong men who will go to the army engineers and other departments of the Government and get the facts necessary to prove their case. Heretofore, we have been hampered by lack of data. On the floor of Congress we will have an organized fighting force prepared to defend their contentions."

Among the Congressmen who spoke at the meeting besides those named were Representatives Hawes of Missouri, Oliver of Alabama, Sweet of Iowa, Tenison of Illinois, Tinscher of Kansas, Jeffries of Nebraska, Davis of Minnesota and Stevens of Ohio.

DOG FOUND DEAD IN FLAT AFTER VISIT BY BURGLARS

Articles Scattered About Eads Avenue Home but Nothing Taken.

When Miss Nena Lowe of 2614 Eads avenue returned home at 5:30 o'clock last evening, after having been absent since 8 a. m., she found the flat had been ransacked by burglars. A fox terrier belonging to the family was lying dead at the foot of the back steps leading to the first floor, and another dog was running about barking. Articles of jewelry, which had been taken from drawers, were scattered about the flat, but nothing was missing.

Neighbors informed the police that they had not seen or heard anything unusual about the Lowe flat during the day. Miss Lowe expressed the theory that the burglars had been attacked by the fox terrier, and that they had beaten or kicked the dog to death.

Two Persian kittens, each valued by the owner at $15, and clothing, jewelry and phonograph records, all valued at $200, were stolen yesterday in a burglary at the home of Otis Barr, 4713 Westminster place.

5-YEAR SENTENCE FOR MAN FOUND GUILTY OF ROBBERY

Louis Kiep, 24 years old, of 1436 Salisbury street, was found guilty of first degree robbery today and the jury fixed the penalty at five years in the penitentiary.

Kiep was charged with complicity in the robbery of Henry Wiseman, of 6100 Vermont street, the night of July 17 last, when $6 and a watch and chain were taken from Wiseman on a vacant lot near Nineteenth and branch streets.

Testimony was that Wiseman and another man were walking near the scene of the robbery when they met two men, one of whom was Kiep, who asked Wiseman for a match. This started a conversation and the four remained together and went to a place where they obtained drinks. They had left this place and were crossing the lot when a fifth man with a revolver waylaid them and robbed Wiseman. Kiep was not suspected until an hour later when policemen arrested him when he was trying to borrow money on Wiseman's watch and chain in a con-

Keeps Hair in Curl on Hot or Windy Days

Here's a hair curling secret that is decidedly "worth while." Just apply a little liquid salerine before doing up the hair, using a clean toothbrush for the purpose, drawing this down the hair from crown to tip. In three hours you will have as beautiful curls and waves as you could wish for. The waviness will look so natural no one will guess it was artificially acquired. And it will last even so long, regardless of heat, wind or dampness. You can obtain liquid salerine at any drug store and a few ounces will last a long time. It is neither sticky nor greasy and is pleasant to use. It is doubly useful because of also serving as a hair dressing, keeping the hair soft, silky and lustrous.

THE WAY TO GET OF BLACKHEADS

There is one simple, safe and sure way to get rid of blackheads, and that is to dissolve them. Do this with two ounces of calomel in a hot, wet sponge—rub over the face briskly—wash the pores and the blackheads will disappear. The blackheads, no matter where they are, simply dissolve and disappear, leaving the skin without any mark whatever. Blackheads are simply a matter of dirt and secretions from the pores of the skin. The calomel makes large pores and does not irritate after they become hard. The calomel and the water simply wash out the pores free and clear, and in their natural condition. If you are troubled with these unsightly blemishes, try this method.

GRAIN RATE OPPOSED

Mississippi Valley Association Wants
Change for Western Shippers.
A protest against proposed reductions by Eastern lines of grain rates for export and domestic shipments from North Atlantic ports was considered in telegrams sent yesterday to the Mississippi Valley Association to President Harding, Secretary of Commerce Hoover and the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The telegrams urge that no reductions be allowed unless similar reductions are allowed for shipments to Gulf ports. "In the interest of fair and equitable treatment for valley states, our association urges necessity of simultaneous rate reductions to permit Western shippers using Gulf ports to compete with export grain shipments via Atlantic ports," the telegrams read.

ST. LOUIS BALLOON PILOT AND AIDE WHO WILL SAIL
FOR BELGIUM AUG. 27

BERNARD VON HOFFMANN

JOHN S. McKIBBEN

BERNARD VON HOFFMANN,
20 years old, son of Albert von Hoffmann of 3811 Flora boulevard, and his aide, John S. McKibben, will leave St. Louis next Tuesday for Brussels, Belgium, where he will pilot his balloon, "City of St.
Louis," in the international balloon race, Sept. 18. The race is for the James Gordon Bennett trophy. They will sail from New York, Aug. 27, on the Finland.

The balloon was built here by Von Hoffmann and McKibben. The bag is made of varnished cotton and with the carrying basket weighs only 600 pounds.

Mayor Kiel yesterday presented Von Hoffmann with a silk flag of St. Louis to be attached to his balloon.

Von Hoffmann, who made his first balloon flight when he was 10 years old, is said to be the youngest pilot entered in the international competition. He is one of the three pilots chosen by the Aero Club of America to represent this country, the others being Ralph Upson of New York and Wade Van Ornam of Akron, O. They were the three who made the best showing in the national race, which started in Birmingham, Ala., in May.

The international balloon race from Birmingham was won last year by the Belgian entry, "Belgica," piloted by two Belgian army officers, Lieuts. de Muyter and Labrousse.

LIGHTNING SETS FIRE TO BIG KANSAS CITY MILL

Plant With 25,000 Barrels of Flour Daily Capacity and Huge Elevator Burn.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Aug. 17.—Damage estimated at approximately $500,000 was caused here early today when the plant of the Kelley Milling Company, in an East Side industrial district, was destroyed by fire. The plant is supposed to have been struck by lightning during a storm.

Several hours after the fire started firemen were still fighting the flames and using every effort to prevent their spread to other buildings in the district. All available fire companies in the city were at the scene.

The Kelley plant consisted of a main structure of seven stories, an elevator, and several smaller buildings.

According to Arthur B. Kelley, president of the concern, the plant was valued at $500,000 and was insured. Kelley said the mill had a capacity of 25,000 barrels of flour daily and that the elevator would hold 300,000 bushels of grain. About 40,000 bushels of wheat were stored in the elevator, he said, and in the warehouses were between 2000 and 3000 barrels of flour.

The fire came as the climax of a storm that began last night and continued until early today. It was accompanied by a great deal of lightning.

Jacob Spahr, night watchman at the plant, reported that lightning struck the main building while the storm was at its height. The entire building was soon a mass of flames, and the fire spread rapidly to the other buildings and toward the plant of the Acme Milling Company, lying east of the Kelley property.

Early this morning the flames were still creeping toward the Acme plant and firemen were centering their efforts upon saving those buildings. Fire department officials reported that inadequate water pressure had handicapped them in their attempts to extinguish the fire at the Kelley plant.

Suzanne Lenglen Writes of Her First Impressions of America

French Woman Tennis Marvel Delighted With Spontaneous Expressions of Admiration, Acts of Courtesy and Applause Which Greeted Her Appearance on Courts at Forest Hills.

The following article was written for the Post-Dispatch by Mlle. Lenglen before the match yesterday afternoon in which she defeated after being beaten by Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory in the first set, 6 to 2.

By Suzanne Lenglen.

(Copyright, 1921.)
NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—One tremendous thought has fastened itself in my mind since my arrival in your country. It is the kindness of the American women and the gallantry of your men. I have been quite overpowered with the many attentions you have paid me, the little acts of courtesy that are spontaneous on your part and which add so much to the enjoyment I am getting out of this visit. It is splendid.

I have been here now for less than four days. Certainly when I leave your friendly shores I am going to take with me the most delightful impressions of the American people. Let me cite two instances that stand out especially in my mind. I knew when I arrived last Saturday that it would not be physically or mentally possible for me to step upon a tennis court some 48 hours after my arrival in your country. You had the right to expect of me. I was quite frank in explaining this to Mr. Samuel Hardy of your tennis association, and to Mrs. Gilbert Montague and Miss Elizabeth Perkins of the American committee for devastated France, for whose benefit I am playing while here. Later in the day when I met Mr. Julian Myrick, the head of the tennis association, I laid my troubles before him.

The kindly smile of Mr. Myrick was an assurance in itself. The courteous attention of Mr. Hardy spoke volumes. And the sympathetic expressions from Mrs. Montague and Miss Perkins showed me that while they could not affect the decision it would be in my favor.

That was the first instance of which I speak and I want everyone to understand that I do appreciate any signs of approval or disapproval. The second demonstration came Monday when I stepped upon the courts of the West Side Tennis Club for a little practice with Mr. Hardy. Quite naturally I had wondered whether you Americans would show any signs of approval or disapproval. Perhaps it might have been just a little presumptuous for me to expect any notice other than that which might be given to any other competitor in the tournament. But I can't help feeling that it would have been silliness on my part to have

French Tennis Marvel Who Collapsed Yesterday, Present at Rival's Victory Today.

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Aug. 17.—The withdrawal of Mlle. Suzanne Lenglen from the thirty-fourth annual women's national lawn tennis championship tournament on the courts of the West Side Club here caused attendance to drop to a few scattered hundreds.

Mlle. Lenglen, whose unexpected default to Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory caused a sensation yesterday, returned to the courts today as a spectator.

PLAN IN CHICAGO TO CARE FOR PROMISING PUBLIC LINKS GOLFERS

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Aug. 17.—A new plan to perfect the more promising public links golfers who have not the financial ability to belong to private clubs has been started in Chicago.

The scheme is to have each club, of which there are more than 40 in the city, about Chicago, admit at least two promising players as nonvoting members, with playing privileges and the right to represent the club in tournaments.

George Hartman of the Jackson Park public links and George Hackl, Jr. of the Lincoln Park course, have been chosen by Midlothian Club. Hartman has twice won the city championship while Hackl, who is only 15 years old, is the "infant prodigy" of the district.

While there has been sporadic action of this nature heretofore, especially in St. Louis and Chicago, no previous attempt has been made to make the scheme general enough to care for all potential public links champions.

Chick Evans Out Of Western Open; Will Play Here

Leading Amateur of the United States Announces He Will Defend His Title.

That Chick Evans, amateur golf champion of the United States, will defend his title at the St. Louis Country Club next September 17-24 was a statement made by Evans yesterday in Chicago, to a correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

The title-holder said that business affairs were pressing to such an extent that he would have to pass by the Western open championship at Cleveland, but that he would surely play at St. Louis.

The assurance will be welcome to Country Club tournament officials who now hope to have all the leading players of the country for the event. Jerome Travers, former champion, who has not won a national tournament factor for several seasons, it is stated, will take part, as will all of the first 10 ranking players of the East, with the possible exception of Guimet, who is still coy about announcing his intention to play. He has not been at his best; but unquestionably, if he is in condition, he will be present.

Holding a national tournament in the Middle West is a more difficult problem than that presented when an Eastern course is named. Transportation difficulties are minimized there, because fully 70 per cent of the golfers of the country are within a comparatively short haul of any metropolitan course.

Kossman Makes Fine Score.
Walter Kossman of Normandie Golf Club lowered the official course record of the new Country Club course yesterday when he made the round in 68, one better than the record.

Wolf's previous low score, Kossman made the round in company with Lawson Watts and Dick Beckerkamp. His card follows: OUT Kossman 433444344-34 Par 443444344-36 IN Kossman 443444344-35-69 Par 443444344-36-72

Something Wrong in Denmark?
FAMOUS sons of famous fathers in the boxing world do not exist. Although boxing has been a sport among English-speaking peoples for several centuries, where is the fighter that has borne a son who followed in the footsteps of his father?

Of all the famous battlers of history, only one we can recall has bearded a son with a predilection for the ring—Bob Fitzsimmons. And if we sum right down to facts, it would be stretching a point to term young Bob Fitz a fighter.

On the contrary, while boxers of today are living more like human beings, taking unto themselves wives and pride in the development of homes and home life, their male children are by no means following in the footsteps of their daddies.

We note the Gibbons boys, both fathers of families, both at the top of ring craft. Two or three years ago, Mike, then the best middleweight in the world and probably nearly so today, despite years, announced that fighting was no game for any child of his, and that his sons would be trained away from the game and not into it.

No Game for a Career.
TOM GIBBONS, too, father of two lusty youngsters, hopes to make himself so independent of flaccid efforts that he can bring up his children into the ways of engineering or some other dignified pursuit. Notwithstanding this, Tom himself is now matched for the most important and probably the most punishing battle of all his career—that with Georges Carpentier.

It seems obvious that past and present fathers have decided that the game is not a career, but a misfortune, and that the best thing they can do is to keep their progeny from taking it up.

Nor is the explanation far afield. The nature of the sport, involving physical disfigurement, is only part of the antipathy.

Too often the boxer has come up through a stratum of chicanery, misrepresentation and sharp practice that has caused a revolt in his better nature. He does not want his children to go through what he had to endure, morally and physically.

Carpentier Will Box Next Month
By the Associated Press.
PARIS, Aug. 17.—Georges Carpentier, heavyweight champion of Europe, will meet Vanderveer, the Dutch heavyweight at Shevingen, a fashionable bathing resort in Holland, next month, says an Amsterdam dispatch to "The Auto."

NOTE—Carpentier has twice postponed the date of his proposed match with Tom Gibbarte the first time until late in October, and again until December. The postponements were due to the condition of his thumb, injured in his battle with Dempsey, July 2.
